Court Decisions. In putting the seal of disapproval on the bringing of meritorious law suits Judge Kingsbury is doing much for the good of the community. In several cases lately he has discouraged a class of suits that should never have been brought. This the Judge has done in a most practical way. He simply fixes the fee of the attorney at so small a figure that no attorney would care to take a case and do the work necessary for the fee allowed.

In the Kaunimahu divorce case a most difficult problem was before the court. Mrs. Kaunimahu became converted to a so-called religion and infatuated with a leader of that sect and practically deserted her husband and her home for the preacher and the new religion. She has steadfastly refused to return to her home and does not even speak to her husband when she meets him. The whole community blames her for the broken home and the trouble that has resulted. The allowance of but twenty-five dollars for legal services will act as a warning to all attorneys to bring no suits of this class against innocent husbands for erring wives. The allowance of but ten dollars for alimony and that to be paid forty days hence and then a weekly allowance of but three dollars per week will probably have some effect on the minds of erring wives should they contemplate leaving their husbands for better looking preachers.

The order of the court that the first payment of alimony be made forty days hence was a most wise provision. There has never been the slightest reason why the wife should have left her husband and she is now given a chance to return to her home where she properly belongs or if she does not do this but returns to her so-called preacher the court may consider that at some future day in making another order.

The wife testified that it is not her intention to return to her husband and if she had been wise she would have allowed the divorce granted by Judge Kepoikai to stand. As it is now she is not free from her husband with whom she does not intend to live nor is she given such alimony as she sought nor was her attorney paid such an amount as one would naturally desire for the work necessary in a divorce suit.

The above is but an instance of many suits that have been brought and fought out that should never have been contested. Some time ago an illiterate Portuguese by the name of M. S. Nevite of Waihee contested a suit brought by Governor Cleghorn for a claim of two hundred and forty dollars. Nevite lost in the District Court. His attorney appealed to the Circuit Court where the decision of the lower court was sustained. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court but on the failure of the attorney to perfect the appeal the same was dismissed on motion of Attorney D. H. Case. In this case Nevite paid Three hundred and fifty four dollars and fifty cents as in full of the amount due for the judgement and costs and besides he paid his attorney for work that was of no benefit to him.

Whether the attorneys in these cases or in any of them were responsible for the bringing of the suits we do not know nor is it our purpose to go into that phase of the cases but we do feel that where the court discourages this class of cases attorneys will be less apt to bring such cases and will do more to discourage them than some of them do at the present time.

Haiku Fruit May Sell Controlling Interest to Hawaiian Pineapple Co.

At the annual meeting of the Haiku Fruit & Packing Co. held at Paia plantation office, Wednesday afternoon, the 12th, all the old officers of the company were re-elected.

The important feature of the meeting, however, was the proposition submitted by the Hawaiian Pineapple Co. of Oahu offering to purchase the controlling interest in the Maui company at a high figure,—the consideration to be either cash or shares in the Oahu corporation.

The Haiku shareholders will undoubtedly accept the liberal terms offered for three hundred one of the total six hundred shares.

What is practically a consolidation of the two companies will be of great benefit to both in a financial way. If the deal is successfully carried through—it is stated that the Maui company will run on the same as before without changes in management.

Manager J. C. Dole of the Hawaiian Pineapple Co. was present at the meeting.

There is talk among the shareholders of the Pukalani Dairy and Pineapple Co. of erecting a cannery on their lands at Lilikoi, Makawao, where it has an abundant supply of water.

That another cannery must soon be established in Makawao goes without saying,—not only because the Haiku institution is already overburdened with the work of canning the products of its own fields and those of its planters (the area of which is continually increasing), but also because the government is soon to open up to homesteaders many acres of pineapple land at Haiku.

The Haiku company has already placed a limit upon the amount of fruit to be accepted from its six planters and has notified the Pukalani Co.—that it can not receive any Pukalani plantation pines after the present season.

The construction of a new cannery in the pineapple district by some capitalist of large means would undoubtedly prove a most lucrative investment.

Friday afternoon, the 14th, the annual picnic of the Home Department Sunday School of the Makawao Union Church took place at "Sunnyside," Paia more than a hundred guests enjoyed the fine lunch and other festivities of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Baldwin of Honolulu are at Olinda House. They expect soon to take a trip to the mainland.

Mrs. Mist of Honolulu is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dowsett of Makawao.

E. A. Peck is the new head-luna at Hamakuaopoko succeeding C. C. Krumbhaar.

The Ladies' Reading Club of Makawao will meet this week on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Frank Alexander, Paia.

Mrs. H. M. Wells is visiting Mrs. Henry Alexander of Haiku.

Maunaloa Seminary will give its annual concert, Saturday evening, the 22nd. A sale of lauhala and needlework will take place at the same time.

Cantata and Dance

For Benefit of School.

The Catholic Ladies Aid Society will give a cantata and dance at the Knights of Pythias Hall on Saturday evening, June 5th.

The cantata will be rendered by the pupils of the St. Anthony's Girl School and those who were fortunate enough to be present at performance given by these children last year are loud in praising the acting and singing of the young ladies, and will not miss this performance.

Some of the best musical talent in Wailuku has been obtained to render solos between the acts. A dance will follow the performance, which will give the young people a chance to further enjoy themselves.

The Catholic Ladies Aid Society is hoping by these means to raise sufficient funds with which to renovate and enlarge the buildings of the St. Anthony's Girls School, which are in need of repairs. The Catholic Sisters, who are in charge of this school, wish to extend their work in educating young girls, but have not been able to do so owing to lack of room. Those who appreciate the good work of the St. Anthony's Girls School are now given an opportunity to assist the school.

Tickets for the performance are now on sale by members of the Society. Reserved seats are being sold at one dollar each and general admission ticket at 50 cents.
